Scripture Reflections ...

Dear friends in Christ,

IF THIS MAN WERE A PROPHET

In today's Gospel, Simon observes Jesus accepting the ministrations of a sinful woman. He questions whether Jesus can be a prophet since Jesus apparently does not know "what sort of woman this is" (Luke 7:39). Jesus, however, knows far more than what Simon observes about the woman. Jesus knows not only her sinfulness but her great love as well. And Jesus responds, not to Simon's verbal objections, but to his unspoken criticism. Here, indeed, is a prophet who knows our thoughts and sinfulness, but knows our goodness, too.

People frequently judge each other by externals, just as Simon did. They categorize each other and, having been categorized, they can do little to escape. The woman in the Gospel was "a sinful woman in the city" (Luke 7:37). Her gestures to Jesus of love and humility were, therefore, overlooked by Simon. A sinner can, apparently, do no good.

Jesus sees things differently. He points out the goodness of the woman and appreciates her love in spite of her failures. Likewise, Jesus knows we are all sinners, but he loves us anyway.

GOD'S GRACIOUS GIFT

Paul today gives tribute to "the Son of God who has loved me and given himself up for me" (Galatians 2:20). This former persecutor of Christians now boasts of his faith in Jesus. How grateful he must have been for the gift of forgiveness! The God who called Paul saw beyond his sinfulness, saw one who loved God passionately if misguidedly, and redirected his efforts.

For contemporary humans, forgiveness is as difficult today as it was in the time of the story of David; it is as hard as it was in the time of Simon. We humans have trouble seeing beyond externals and so easily fall into the habit of judging others unfairly.

Jesus' example calls us to look beyond externals, to find the goodness in each person, to forgive. Then God's gracious gift of the Son will not have been, as Paul says, pointless.

Today's Readings: 2 Samuel 12:7-10, 13; Psalm 32:1-2, 5, 7, 11; Galatians 2:16, 19-21; Luke 7:36 - 8:3 [7:36-50] Copyright © 2006, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

On June 19th and 20th
We Welcome Fr. Victor Warkulwiz

Fr. Victor Warkulwiz is from the "Missionaries of the Blessed Sacrament" he will be our guest speaker at all the Masses for the weekend of June 19/20 on the benefits and necessity of Adoration in our parish. Fr. Warkulwiz is currently residing in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania at Our Lady of Fatima Parish. Father Warkulwiz has taken his message of Adoration to several hundred parishes in 36 States and Canada. He has dedicated himself to visiting a parish every weekend where the desire to establish an Adoration Chapel has been expressed.

Pope John Paul 11 says, "Our essential commitment in life is to grow spiritually in the climate of the Holy Eucharist." There is no greater love given to Catholics than Christ present in the Eucharist.

Please do not miss hearing Fr. Warkulwiz, his homily is most inspiring and has touched the hearts of thousands of Catholics in bringing them to a deeper understanding and love of the Blessed Sacrament.
