Scripture Reflections ...

Dear friends in Christ,

A FIRST EXPERIENCE OF ADULT BAPTISM

The first time I experienced the baptism of an adult at an Easter Vigil, I was struck by the impact the sacrament seemed to have on one man in particular. Joe had been raised in the Jewish faith and, late in his life, embraced Christianity. Our parish experienced eleven adult baptisms that night and Joe was one of the last to be baptized. As the organist, I had a particularly good view of the newly baptized as they emerged from the baptismal font. When Joe, who usually had a serious look about him, emerged from the waters, his face was absolutely radiant. When he stood up, I played the introduction to the acclamation and the roof was nearly lifted off the church as the congregation sang, "You have put on Christ, in him you have been baptized. Alleluia, Alleluia!" I couldn't wait to talk with Joe about the experience.

THE BODY OF CHRIST

A week later I sat with Joe and a group of the newly baptized and asked Joe what it was like to be baptized. He said, "When I came up out of the water and looked into the faces of the people in the church, I realized that I was finally one of them." Joe had been clothed with Christ in so many ways that night. To be clothed in Christ means that we become Christ for one another. It also means that we heed the call issued forth from Christ in today's Gospel to take up the cross daily and follow him. It also means that we are clothed with another manifestation of Christ in our Christian experience, namely, we become part of this community that is the body of Christ. One consolation about being a Christian is that we never take up our crosses alone. We always have the support and love of the body of Christ. As the long stretch of Ordinary Time opens before us, let us pledge to support one another as we take up our crosses daily and follow in the footsteps of Christ, in whom we have been baptized.

I want to wish all of our Fathers out there a Happy Father's Day. From what fathers have shared with me over the years being a father is breathtakingly difficult and they certainly need a strategy for carrying out their duties. The number one requirement of fatherhood: to be there. Being a father is more than just a biological function. Fatherhood is about providing the good soil for the seed to sprout. Some questions all fathers need to ask themselves are: Is God pleased with who we are in our homes, what we do in our homes and what values we teach in our homes? Who are we trying to please more than anyone else in our homes? I wonder what a home would look like if pleasing God was the guiding principle, the determining factor for everything there.

I came across a story that speaks for itself. A father was watching his young son trying to dislodge a heavy stone. The boy couldn't budge it. "Are you sure you are using all your strength?" the father asked. "Yes, I am," said the exasperated boy. "No, you are not," the father replied. "You haven't asked me to help you."

On this Father's Day, our thoughts and prayers are turned toward our fathers. For those whose fathers have increased the joy in their lives, we give you thanks. For those whose father's presence is greatly missed may we take time to gratefully recall all they have given to us.

"Come to Jesus"

(A reflection while praying before Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament)

In the quiet of the tiny chapel,
we come to Jesus.

Our hearts are heavy and restless and we come to adore Him.

We come to stay with Him an hour,
to be comforted in His peace.

In this most holy place, before Jesus we kneel, we sit and we pray.

In the quiet, sunny chapel,
we listen.

In moments our cluttered minds and heavy hearts, are comforted.

He reaches into our heart
holding our worries and joys; loving us.

Moving us to tears of happiness,
gratitude and peace.

Jesus calls out to us,
Trust in me, I am here.

Be not afraid, I am with you,
now and always.

Our peaceful hour with Jesus is over; too soon.

Our responsibilities call out to us;
we must be on our way.

With renewed faith we know
Jesus is always with us.
